

NUTS & BOLTS

235 city blocks of blanketed WiFi coverage

225 Access Points

25 fibre connection points

200 metres radius of coverage at street level from each Access Point

3 types of Access Points

Approximate weight of largest Access Point: 15 Kg

Same frequency as baby monitors, garage door openers, cordless phones

30-40 minutes to install each Access Point

70/30 split between omni-directional and directional antennae

6 square kilometres of blanketed coverage within 2006

Old City of Toronto: 97 square kilometres

New City of Toronto: 630 square kilometres

